

St George's Mutual Aid

Covid-19 Community Support

- Do you need support?
- Are you self-isolating or is anyone else you know?
- Can you offer to help?

St George's Mutual Aid is a local group for neighbours to come together during the Covid-19 crisis so everyone can get food, medicines, information and other support. Volunteers deliver all supplies in a controlled, hygienic way and leave deliveries on doorsteps. The Mutual Aid Group keeps track, making sure everyone is safe and that we only spread kindness! Whether you are able to run errands or are self-isolating, we're all in this together!
